ADDITIONAL SUPERVISED RELEASE TERMS

Defendant shall provide the supervising U.S. probation officer any and all requested financial information, including copies of state and federal tax returns.

Defendant shall refrain from incurring new credit charges, opening additional lines of credit or opening other financial accounts without the prior approval of the supervising U.S. probation officer.

Defendant shall submit his person, property, house, residence, papers, vehicle, computers, or other electronic communications, data storage device, or media, or office to a search conducted by a U.S. probation officer at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, whenever the probation officer has reasonable suspicion of contraband or of the violation of a condition of release; failure to submit to a search may be a ground for revocation; defendant shall warn any other residents that the premises he is occupying may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition.

Defendant shall not enter any establishment whose primary business is the sale of alcoholic beverages.

Defendant shall participate in mental health referral, assessment and treatment as approved by the supervising U.S. probation officer and comply with all rules, regulations and recommendations of the mental health agency or its representative to the extent approved by the supervising U.S. probation officer. Defendant shall take any medications prescribed by a licensed medical provider. Defendant shall be required to obtain his own funding for services.

Defendant shall abstain from the use of alcohol and illegal drugs and from association with drug users and sellers and participate in substance abuse treatment. Defendant shall submit to drug testing beginning within 15 days of his release and 60 drug tests annually thereafter. The probation office may utilize the Administrative Office of the U.S. Courts' phased collection process.

Defendant shall provide the supervising U.S. probation officer advance notification of any devices associated with or falling within the general category of information technology (IT) that produce, manipulate, store, communicate or disseminate information and that he will use during the term of supervision. The probation office is authorized to install any application as necessary on any such devices owned or operated by defendant and shall randomly monitor those media. Defendant shall consent to and cooperate with unannounced examinations of any technological equipment owned or used by him, including but not limited to retrieval and copying of all data from all information technology devices and any internal or external peripherals. The examinations may involve removal of such equipment for the purpose of conducting examination.

Defendant shall not own, use or have access to the services of any commercial mail-receiving agency or open or maintain a post office box without the prior approval of the supervising U.S. probation officer.

Defendant shall not associate with any person under the age of 18 or have verbal, written, telephonic or electronic communication with any such person, except with the express permission of the minor's parent or legal guardian or the supervising U.S. probation officer. This provision does not include persons under the age of 18, such as waiters, cashiers, ticket vendors, etc., with whom defendant must deal in order to obtain ordinary and usual commercial services.

Defendant shall not work in any occupation, business or profession, or participate in any volunteer activity where he has access to children under the age of 18 without the prior approval of the supervising U.S. probation officer.

Defendant shall comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act as directed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in which he resides, works, is a student or was convicted of a qualifying offense.

Defendant shall undergo a psychosexual evaluation, which may involve use of Abel Screen and polygraph or plethysmograph examinations, or similar technology, as approved by the supervising U.S. probation officer. Defendant shall participate in and successfully complete an outpatient sex offender counseling program if recommended by the evaluator, as approved by the supervising U.S. probation officer. Defendant shall follow all restrictions and treatment requirements of the program. Defendant shall allow reciprocal release of information between the supervising U.S. probation officer and the treatment provider.

Defendant shall have no contact with the victim in person, through written or electronic communication, or through a third party, unless authorized by the supervising U.S. probation officer. Defendant shall not enter the premises or loiter within 1,000 feet of the victim's residence or place of employment.
